

Anna Shumilova | Senior Lawyer

+44 (0)20 7851 8888
AShumilova@jha.com

PROFILE

Anna joined JHA in 2015 as an Associate, having previously worked as in-house counsel at a major Russian oil company. She is a Russian qualified lawyer with fifteen years' experience in international dispute resolution. Her practice focuses on international arbitration, international investment arbitration, and cross-border dispute resolution.

She advises and represents clients, including states, in international arbitrations under ICC, LCIA, SCC and Swiss Rules, concerning issues such as breach of joint venture and engagement agreements and contractual disputes. She has experience of representing Russian companies and high-net-worth individuals in disputes in other jurisdictions, notably in the US, UK and Sweden. She is also familiar with sectors including oil and gas, mining and metals, manufacturing, financial services and real estate.

---

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Admitted to legal practice in the Russian Federation, 2007

---

EDUCATION

London School of Economics and Political Science – LLM

State University Higher School of Economics, Russia – Specialist in Law and International Public Law

---

Practice Areas

- Arbitration
- Commercial Litigation

