JOSEPH HAGE AARONSON

John Hayton | Associate

PROFILE

John is a solicitor whose practice spans direct and indirect tax litigation. He has experience representing clients at the enquiry stage (including an enquiry with an alleged nine-figure tax liability at stake on HMRC's High Risk Corporates Programme), on statutory appeals before the tax tribunals, judicial review claims before the High Court, and appellate proceedings before the Court of Appeal. He has acted for High Net Worth and Ultra High Net Worth Individuals, sportspersons, as well as multinational and domestic public and private companies. Many of John's cases involve a cross-border or EU law aspect.
