PROFILE

Joseph joined JHA in August 2015 and became an Associate in December 2017. His practice covers a range of contentious matters, with a particular focus on direct tax issues and group litigation. He has represented clients at all levels of the UK courts and tax tribunals, including in several cases before the Supreme Court challenging the lawfulness of various UK corporate tax imposts. He has also acted in cases relating to the imposition of EU restrictive measures, and in general commercial disputes and investigations.

Alongside his contentious practice, Joseph advises clients on commercial contracts, intellectual property and corporate law issues, often involving a cross-border element.

Articles recently authored by Joseph include High Court rules on outstanding issues in the CFC & Dividend GLO, (Tax Journal); Jazztel plc v HMRC: High Court ruling in Stamp Taxes GLO, (CCH Daily incorporating Accountancy Live); and FII group litigation ruling on tax on foreign sourced dividends, (Tax Journal).
