JOSEPH HAGE AARONSON

PROFILE

Lynnette is a Director in the Joseph Hage Aaronson tax team. She has specialised in private client tax for over 15 years and has a wealth of experience in acting for high-net-worth individuals on tax and trust matters. She has also acted for trustees (of both UK and offshore trusts) and estates.

Lynnette specialises in income and capital taxes including in relation to complex offshore structures. She also has an extensive knowledge of the administration of the tax system and often represents clients subject to HMRC enquiries and investigations or needing to make a disclosure.

Lynnette contributes to various technical publications and is a committed volunteer with respect to the private client tax work of the professional bodies.

Lynnette won Taxation's inaugural Rising Star Award (in 2009), was named as one of the inaugural Tax Journal 40 under 40s (in 2011) and most recently she was shortlisted for Taxation's 2019 outstanding contribution to tax award. She was also one of the Judges for the 2022 Taxation Awards.
