

Seth Cumming | Director

+44 (0)20 7851 8888
SCumming@jha.com

PROFILE

Seth was called to the Bar in 2010. He practiced in chambers for six years before joining JHA as an Associate in 2016. He has substantial litigation and advocacy experience before all levels of the English Courts, and has appeared regularly both as a sole advocate and as a junior in the High Court and Court of Appeal. He also has extensive experience as an advocate before arbitration tribunals. He specialises in commercial litigation, international commercial arbitration, contentious chancery, and private international law.

Seth has acted on numerous commercial cases, with his litigation experience including freezing orders, banking and fraud issues, contentious trusts and probate disputes, and disagreements relating to insolvency and insurance. His arbitration experience includes high value investor-state arbitrations involving multiple European jurisdictions, as well as commercial arbitrations under ICC and LCIA rules.

His clients range from European states to large corporations in the oil and gas, manufacturing and financial services sectors.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Barrister, England and Wales, 2010

EDUCATION

University College London – LL.M, (Merit)

London School of Economics and Political Science – MSc, (Merit)

City University Law School – Bar Professional Training Course, (Outstanding)

BPP University – LL.B, (First Class Honours)

Rhodes University, South Africa – BSc, (Double First)

Practice Areas

- Arbitration
- Commercial Litigation

