

Thomas Hemming | Associate

+44 (0)20 7851 8888
Thomas.Hemming@jha.com

JOSEPH HAGE AARONSON

Thomas Hemming | Associate

PROFILE

Thomas completed pupillage with the firm in January 2024. His practice focuses on tax disputes. Thomas has worked on several complex direct tax cases with an international dimension in proceedings before the tax tribunals and the High Court. He has also helped to prepare such cases in the Court of Appeal. Thomas has also assisted in indirect tax cases, contractual disputes, judicial review, and regulatory matters.

Before joining JHA, Thomas worked in the tax department of a national firm, where he dealt with a broad range of direct and indirect tax issues for corporate and private clients and also assisted with contractual and regulatory disputes.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Called to the Bar of England and Wales, 2022

EDUCATION

Inns of Court College of Advocacy – Bar Course (Merit) (Kennedy Scholarship - Lincoln's Inn)

Oxford Brookes University - Graduate Diploma in Law (Distinction)

University of Oxford – Master's in Medieval History

University of Birmingham – BA in Ancient History

Practice Areas

- Tax Disputes

